"A THOUSAND POINTS OF ACTION"

THE WBAI WINTER MARATHON STARTS JANUARY 6

A THOUSAND POINTS OF ACTION

A Marathon Special
Produced by the Listeners of WBAI

We know that there are fascinating, articulate, and talented people in the WBAI listening family. We do our best all year long to bring you the most diverse and informative programming around—now it's your turn.

If you send in a cassette of two minutes' worth of your poem, song, speech, diatribe, or whathaveyou by January 6th, we will be able to share our most treasured resource with you—the ability to reach people. From 9am to noon on that day, we will turn over the airwaves to the people who allow us to stay there—our listeners. You have been with us through it all and we are truly grateful. Send in your cassette to:

WBAI Listener Marathon Special
505 8th Avenue
New York, NY 10018

Or call us on January 6th between 9am and noon at 212-279-3407, 08, or 09 and we will give you one of the greatest gifts of all: the ability to reach people.

EDITORIAL PRIVILEGE

First off, happy New Year. Now, on to more serious things.

As you recuperate from your annual bout of holiday excess, think on this: the theme of our January Marathon is: "One Thousand Points of Action." We at WBAI want the buzzword of 1989 to be "action." We want to lay the groundwork now so that the 90's can be a replay of the best parts of the 60's; we want people to feel that they have a voice again. And we want WBAI to shine as brightly as it did back those 30 years ago—in the vanguard of the movement, in the midst of the excitment, in the center of the tangle of possibilities and hope.

We depend on the quality of our programming to justify your support. At press time, the Marathon programming was just beginning to take shape. There are bound to be many more instances of special Marathon programming before this issue of the Folio hits your mailbox—so stay tuned to our air for late-breaking announcements.

Help us. Keep us alive with your contributions, bring yourselves down to our studios and volunteer, learn about the true magic and power of Free Speech Radio from the inside out. We are inviting our listeners to actively participate in our programming this month, especially on January 20th from 9am to noon, and January 21st from 10am to 8pm. On those special days, our precious airtime is being set aside so that you can make your own personal statement with our help—a gift from us to you (please see listings for more information). Dig deep, times are not getting any easier for us, any of us, and we need your support more than ever.

Remember—without you, we would not be.

—Sharon Griffiths

9:00 MARATHON SPECIAL: THE ANTI-COMMUNISM CONFERENCE. In late November, an international conference was held at Harvard University reviewing the impact and role of the phenomenon of anti-Communism in the formulation of US foreign and domestic policies since WW II. The conference, sponsored by the Center for Media Studies, brought together many luminaries from the movement for social justice in the US and around the world. Noted speakers included the former heads of state of Guyana and the Dominican Republic—both of whom were overthrown by the US/CIA under the guise of fighting Communism "in our own back yard." Also present was the Salvadorlan opposition leader Guellermo Ungo. Speaking alongside their international compatriots were many prominent US academics, activists, and journalists, including Richard Falk, Archie Singham, John Stockwell, and Alexander Cockburn. Highlights of this three-day conference will be presented by Samori Marksman, Sally O'Brien, and guests as WBAI takes a long, hard look at anti-Communism and offers commentary on its future under the Bush administration.

WBAI Marathon Inauguration special January 20th at noon.

WBAI WANTS YOU . . .

. . . to put a phone in your hand and help out during the January Marathon. Volunteers are needed from 7am to midnight, seven days a week, from January 6th to the 22nd. Other thrilling and highly challenging jobs, like licking envelopes, are also available. Call (212) 279-0707 from 10am to 5pm during the week and ask for the Merathon Coordinator. C'mon, sign up for a stint in the Army of Free Speech!

A THOUSAND POINTS OF ACTION:

WBAI Salutes Its Loyal Listeners

January 21st is Free Speech Day and an Open House for listeners at WBAI. Throughout the day, you will hear speechs by Assata Shakur, Angela Davis, John Stockwell, Sonia Johnson, Michael Parenti, Malcolm X, Noam Chomsky, Ed Said, Alexander Cockburn, Dan Shechan, Manuel Pedro Pacavera, Helen Caldicott, Oliver Tambo, Alan Bousak, Sonia Sanchez and other political and artistic activists. Also—come on up to our studios and meet some of your favorite producers—you can even pay your pledge on the spot and get your favorite speech as a premium, right then and there! Come on up to 505 8th Avenue at 35th Street, 19th floor—see WBAI through the other side of the airwaves.

7:30 MARATHON SPECIAL: 'Twas the Night Before the Inauguration. Just over a quarter of the eligible voters in the US elected George Bush to the Presidency. Join investigative journalist Alan Nairn and the WBAI News team as they speak with guests Holbert James, who worked with the Jackson and Dukakis campaigns, Village Voice reporter Wayne Barrett, consumer advocate Ralph Nader, civil rights attorney Colin Moore and Angela Falcone of the Institute for Puerto Rican Policy Studies.

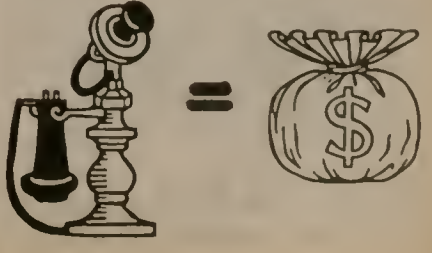
TAKE YOUR ELBOW OUT OF THE SOUP . . .

. . . you're sitting on the chicken. Is that an accurate depiction of your early morning table manners? If so, the WBAI Breakfast Club wants you. Come and break bread (or bagel, or muffin) with other early-rising WBAI listeners as you answer phones for the WBAI Marathon starting at 7am.

The Breakfast Club is very exclusive—you must be able to hold a phone, talk, and eat simultaneously; spilling your coffee is a definite demerit, as is dunking. Call (212) 279-0707 from 10am to 5:30pm weekdays and ask for the Marathon Coordinator to sign up for this mind-altering experience.



7:30 EMANATIONS MARATHON SPECIAL. Police killings and corruption in New York. Following the acquittal of Adam Abdul Hakim (Larry Davis) on murder charges and the disclosure of racism in the 113th Precinct, the PBA felt a need to respond. In late November, over 3500 members of the PBA held a rally in front of the precinct house, where PBA president Phil Caruso declared war on the non-white communities of this city. What does this declaration mean? What is the community's response? Explore these issues with Bernard White and Sally O'Brien as our January Marathon draws to a close.
